[Special website]

Discover the appeal of SMEs that will make the society of the future a reality!

This interactive exhibition showcases future-oriented products, services, technologies, etc. developed by small and medium enterprises (SMEs) that leverage their unique strengths to tackle social challenges and pave the way toward the future. Through this exhibition, these SMEs can be likened to “challengers embarking on a voyage into uncharted oceans.” We invite you to explore the diverse technologies and innovative ideas of these companies and experience firsthand the value and spirit of SMEs striving to shape the society of the future.

A promotional video of this event is now available!
